INNOVATIVE IDEAS AND INSPIRATIONAL DESIGN

CONSIDERED APPROACH

Inspired by the early Regency period, Brookmans By Smallbone's new K3 kitchen features pared-back cabinetry combined with elaborate mouldings. Available in six paint colours, its strength is in its details, like contemporary-shaped handles etched with an intricate diamond pattern for a luxurious look and feel. K3 kitchens start from £25,000, Brookmans By Smallbone. →

SMEG'S ALL-IN-ONE HOOD AND INDUCTION HOB COMBINATION, HOBD, HAS HAD AN UPGRADE AND NOW PROVIDES BARELY AUDIBLE EXTRACTION, £2,199.

LUXURY TOUCH

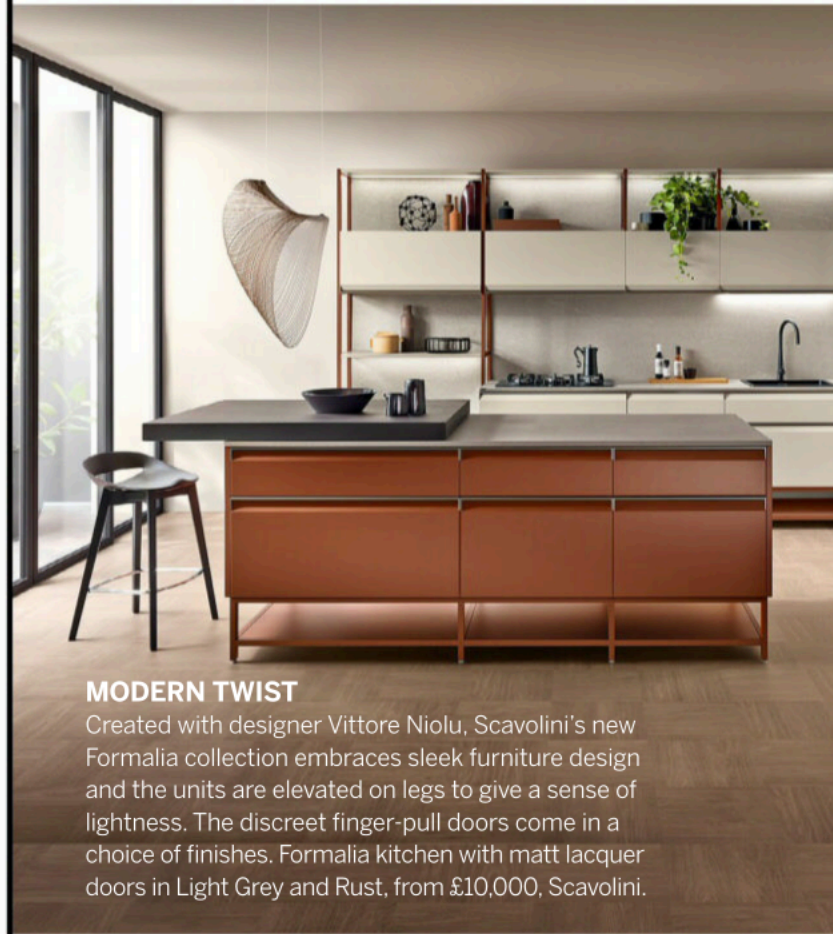

Elevate your bathroom experience with stylish basin, bath and shower mixers from the Engineer collection by Swadling Brassware. Partly industrial, but mostly luxurious, the range reignites the pleasure of touch, thanks to the distinctive knurl detailing on its controls. Finishes include gold, living brass and aged brass. Engineer Collection Double Control Outlet in brushed gold, £1,642.80, Swadling Brassware.

NAME TO KNOW

Looking for a beautiful handcrafted basin that will make a style statement? You'll be certain to find one at The Way We Live London, an exciting new independent lifestyle brand. Choose from eight collections, including Petal, which is home to the pretty Nyla with its soft, curved rim and dusky pink hue. Nyla basin, £380, The Way We Live London.

MODERN TWIST

Created with designer Vittore Nioiu, Scavolini's new Formalia collection embraces sleek furniture design and the units are elevated on legs to give a sense of lightness. The discreet finger-pull doors come in a choice of finishes. Formalia kitchen with matt lacquer doors in Light Grey and Rust, from £10,000, Scavolini.

SPANISH REMAKE

A reimagining of an antique tile discovered in a crumbling flamenco taverna, the Zapato is part of Maitland & Poate's Duende collection of handmade cement tiles. Created by third-generation artisans in the Andalusian foothills, each tile is produced with natural pigments and authentic materials. There are four colourways – a heritage ochre, soft rose, vibrant blue and rich green. Zapato tiles, £150sq m, Maitland & Poate. →
